TO: Cameron Clark Christianson

The Executive Director of the Real Estate Council of Alberta (RECA) has determined that there is sufficient evidence that you have contravened section 92(1) of the Rules and this is conduct deserving of sanction.

Penalty: $1,500 (see Schedule 2 of the Bylaws)

Particulars of the contravention(s):

1. You failed to file a Declaration Respecting Absence of Trust Transactions within 3 months of your fiscal year contrary to section 92(1) of the Real Estate Act Rules:
 - a) Your brokerage's fiscal year end was June 30, 2016.
 - b) You were sent six emails to the brokerage email address and your personal email address reminding you that the required accounting forms must be filed by September 30, 2016. Those emails were sent on July 4, Aug 3, Sept 6, 15, 23 and 29, 2016.
 - c) Each email reminder sent gave clear instructions on what form was required, a link to RECA's website that explained how to access the form in your myRECA account, and a warning that failure to complete the required form by September 30, 2016, could result in an administrative penalty.
 - d) You filed the required form on October 27, 2016.

The circumstances of this matter indicate the following factors were considered:

Aggravating Factors

- You were reminded six times that the required form had to be completed and those reminders made clear the potential consequences for failing to do so.
