If you pay the Penalty

- You will have satisfied the Administrative Penalty and no further proceedings under Part 6 will be taken against you.
- You cannot be charged under the Real Estate Act with an offence for the contravention(s) in this Administrative Penalty.

TO: Gurpreet Singh Mann

The Registrar of the Real Estate Council of Alberta (RECA) has determined there is sufficient evidence you have contravened section 41(b) of the *Real Estate Act Rules and this is conduct deserving of sanction.

Rule 41 – Licensees must:

(b) provide competent service

Particulars of the contravention(s):

1. In or around February 2021, you failed to exercise competent service, contrary to section 41(b) of the Real Estate Act Rules:
 - a) You were representing Buyers interested in viewing a property. On February 20, 2021, you had permission to bring your buyers to view the property.
 - b) This was during the COVID-19 pandemic. Your brokerage adopted guidelines that only two people plus the associate were allowed in a property at the same time.
 - c) You brought four Buyer clients into property.
 - d) You allowed the buyers to enter the property without you. You unlocked the door for them but did not enter the property with them. You waited until they were finished viewing the property and locked the door. This was a failure to exercise reasonable care and skill when a property was under your care and control.

The Registrar considered the following aggravating and mitigating factors:

Aggravating Factors

- RECA has received multiple complaints from sellers about buyer agents failing to follow permissions or guidelines around showings. We must deter this conduct.

Appeal

You have the right to appeal this Administrative Penalty to a Hearing Panel. See section 83.1 of the *Real Estate Act for what you must do to appeal.

In an appeal you will be given a full opportunity consistent with procedural fairness and natural justice to present evidence before the Hearing Panel in relation to the contraventions alleged.

Your written notice of appeal must comply with section 83.1 and must be received by the Registrar within 30 days of you receiving this Administrative Penalty.

If you appeal, payment of the Penalty will not be required until an order to pay a penalty is issued by the Hearing Panel. If you have any questions regarding particulars or the appeal process, please contact:
